Sees Faubus Election as GOP Victory

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dale Bumpers predicted today a big Democratic vote again for Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller in the November general election if former Gov. Orval E. Faubus is his Democratic opponent.

Bumpers, facing Faubus in Tuesday's Democratic gubernatorial runoff, spoke to about 800 persons who paid $10 a ticket to eat doughnuts and rolls at a fund-raising breakfast.

The Charleston lawyer said that Rockefeller polled only about 30,000 votes in the GOP primary in 1968, but 250,000 in the general election.

"That means 220,000 Democrats crossed over and voted for him," Bumpers said. "This year they'll do the same thing, only more of them will cross over if the former governor is the nominee."

He said he agreed with Faubus that former Rockefeller supporters were backing him because they are looking for "fresh leadership they haven't seen in 16 years."

He said "all those so-called strongholds" of Faubus in various parts of the state also were looking for the same thing.

Bumpers joked that Faubus could not "get much mileage" out of the reported sighting of a Bumpers campaign car at the governor's mansion on the day of the preferential primary because "he and I agree no one has lived there for four years." Two witnesses claim that Bumpers was in the car.

Bumpers has denied that he was and Rockefeller has said he was not at the mansion at the time of the sighting.

Man Is Independent Creature, Husband Is Something Else

By BOB HARING
Associated Press Writer

EAST BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — A husband is more than a man.

While it is true that all husbands are men—even in these days when sexual barriers are toppling—it is not true that all men are husbands.

And therein lies the difference.

A man is an independent creature, free of spirit and action. A husband is something else.

Crossing the barrier between youth and manhood is nothing compared to crossing the threshhold to husbandhood.

Boys learn quickly and naturally the attributes requisite for the male of the species. Hormones, heredity, training—possibly even mothers—prepare boys for their proper role as males, breadwinners, hunters, warriors against the world.

Nothing really prepares a man for husbandhood. And the transformation is less dramatic, more gradual. Many a man becomes a husband before he realizes it.

As the winds and waters of centuries carve even the hardest rock, so the soft abrasions of daily living shape the husband:

The trauma of the first big dinner for company when the roast burned.

The death of the first pet shared by man and wife.

The first argument with a neighbor housewife.

The bridge party with the couple neither of you like.

The disappointment over a promotion hoped for but given to someone else.

In many small deeds, a man shapes himself toward husbandhood; bringing home flowers bought on impulse, for no special occasion; forgetting a birthday; sending a card from an out-of-town trip; finding a puppy to replace one taken tragically by a car.

Man cannot cope with woman's tears. A husband has to.

In a thousand such copings, a man and a woman become a husband and wife.

Yet neither may be really aware of the process or of the change.

Children are but one more element of change—a rougher sand to grind the sharp edges of marriage.

While the transformation may be subtle, both sides recognize when the metamorphasis is complete.

The sign may be titanic, a fierce argument or a shared loss of a child or loved one. Or it may be microscopic, the purchase of a table, the planting of a tree.

But the recognition is clear: Suddenly two people think on one wave length, sharing thoughts and reactions like twins.

It is then that a man becomes a husband who dares buy a suit —or even a house—without his wife's approving eye. It is then he starts wearing the tie she bought last Christmas.

Faubus Again Says Bumpers Linked to WR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus continued to charge Thursday that Dale Bumpers of Charleston, his opponent in Tuesday's Democratic gubernatorial runoff, is linked with Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Faubus said in a television speech that "almost the entire Rockefeller organization" was working to obtain the Democratic gubernatorial nomination for Bumpers.

The former governor did not specify what he meant by the "organization," but mentioned the names of persons he said were Republicans or Rockefeller supporters who he said were working for Bumpers.

Faubus also said he had been told by a radio station, which he did not identify, that the station had receive in "one bundle" advertising tapes for Rockefeller, Bumpers and state Rep. Sterling R. Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock, the GOP nominee for lieutenant governor.

The former governor said the station received one check to pay for the advertising.

Faubus told a newsmen Wednesday that this transaction did not prove any collusion between Rockefeller and Bumpers.

Faubus has charged that Bumpers has received Rockefeller money in the campaign and that the Charleston attorney had supported Rockefeller, a Republican, against Democratic nominees in previous elections.

Bumpers has denied Faubus' accusations and, in turn, charged that Rockefeller put Faubus in the race. Bumpers says Rockefeller wants to face Faubus in November because the former governor would be easy to beat.

Faubus said in his television speech that Bumpers' denial was evasive and that the "evidence has been pouring in" that Bumpers had supported Rockefeller previously and had the governor's support in this election.

He said Rockefeller appointed Bumpers in 1969 as a special judge to serve on a case before the state Supreme Court. "Why would Gov. Rockefeller appoint Mr. Bumpers to this position . . . if he did not know him and he had never supported Mr. Rockefeller?" Faubus asked.

Faubus said that in 1966 Bumpers served as the attorney for the Republican party in litigation in Franklin County.

"Now, an attorney could represent anyone without any political implications, but this just ties in," Faubus said.

Faubus said one of Bumpers' leading supporters was Joe S. Hiatt of Charleston, who the former governor said was a Republican and a Rockefeller appointee to the state Banking Law Study Commission.

Faubus said that a Harrison resident had written him that a reception at Harrison for Bumpers last Monday were "a great number of avowed hard-line Rockefeller supporters." Faubus said that Tom Ledbetter of Harrison, identified by the former governor as a Republican, accompanied Bumpers around the city. He said several employes of Marion Hartz of Stuttgart, a Rockefeller appointee to the state Racing Commission, were working full time for Bumpers.

Faubus said that a Bill Phillips, who was described as a "known Rockefeller worker," was active on Bumpers' behalf at Russellville.

Faubus said there was a "conspiracy" of newspapers to defeat him. He said the Arkansas Gazette, the Arkansas Democrat and the North Little Rock Times all selected the same three candidates to support in the preferential primary I Bumpers, Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell and Hayes McClerkin, with the Gazette also naming James M. Malone Jr.

"Right up to the last minute, Joe Purcell was in second place by a good margin," Faubus said. "Perhaps this combine decided he wasn't their man for some reason.

"So the main force of the Rockefeller organization was suddenly averted from Purcell and McClerkin and shifted to Bumpers and that's why Bumpers came up so fast."

Jobless Rate Edges Up in August

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate edged up to 5.1 per cent of the work force in August and the number of Americans with jobs shrank by nearly 400,000, the Labor Department said today.

The actual number of jobless workers decreased 300,000 to a total of 4.2 million, but seasonal factors and a 700,000 drop in the civilian labor force resulted in the rise of one-tenth of one per cent in the jobless rate, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

The report also said that the factory work week and overtime declined, reflecting the continuing economic slowdown.

The average pay of some 45 million rank and file workers rose a penny an hour to $3.24 and 70 cents a week to $122.15, but the nation's worst inflation in 20 years continued to widen the gap between earnings and purchasing power.

The average weekly pay check, while 4.8 per cent above a year ago, was worth one per cent less in actual purchasing power, the report said.

The 5.1 per cent jobless rate, highest in five years, included 1.6 million men, 1.4 million women and 1.1 million teenagers in the jobless ranks.

SIX TERMS - 12 YEARS - SIX TERMS - 12 YEARS SIX TERMS - 12 YEARS - SIX TERMS - 12 YEARS - SIX TERMS - 12 YEARS - SIX TERMS - 12 YEARS

An open, unsolicited letter to citizens of Hempstead County—

The people of Hempstead County elected me County Clerk and I served two terms or four years. I appreciated and enjoyed working for you and besides that, it gave me a little start in life.

We had two children - Jack and Kay - that received all of their grade and high school education in Hope. I have always believed in good schools and paying a fair and just tax to support them. When my children were in school here, all of the taxpayers were paying taxes to help me educate them along with their children. Kay finished Hope High School in 1956, and since that time I have considered it a happy privilege and honor to continue to pay a fair and just school tax in order to help other parents to educate their children. I paid my taxes yesterday and found out that the amount the school will receive out of my taxes will pay more than it takes to keep one student in school one year. I also received in the mail a letter from the Equilization Board notifying me of a one dollar per acre increase on what acreage I own. I accepted this with pleasure—What I am wondering about is if this is going to be enough to keep the schools open for 9 months.

Now if we are going to continue to perpetuate our present sheriff in office after 12 years, why not just make him a deed to the office so that he can save his filing fees and all campaign expenses. Then close the schools; the graduates from school won't be needed at the Court House.

The sheriff speaks of his experience in office—what experience did he have when he started? We have had a lot of sheriffs before his day and the office continued on and will continue on after this generation. I did not have any experience when I was elected, but the work went on.

To whom do the county offices belong? The people, of course. So let us make room for others and not restrict these offices to just a few and their families.

We hear a lot about our youngsters and the generation gap—I tell you I am proud of our youth in Hope. Oh, yes once in a while you will find a bad apple in a bushel but that does not mean that the whole bushel is bad. Let us move a little closer to the youth of our county — listen and respect them — provide them with good schools, churches, and better jobs. Possibly some of us older than the youth group have run the show long enough. Let's give them a chance!

Sincerely,

Leo Ray

Fingerprint Identified in Tate Trial

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A fingerprint found on a French door in Sharon Tate's bedroom has been identified in testimony as that of Patricia Krenwinkel, one of three women on trial with clan leader Charles M. Manson in the slaying of the actress and six others.

A police expert also testified Thursday that a fingerprint on the front door of the mansion matched the right ring fingerprint of another Manson "family" member, Charles "Tex" Watson. Watson, indicted with the others, is fighting extradition from Texas.

Manson, 35, and his three women codefendants are charged with murder-conspiracy in the August 1969 slayings.

Officer Jerrome Boen said he took fingerprints at Miss Tate's home the morning she was found slain along with four visitors.

Officer Harold Dolan said he compared the prints with those of the defendants, victims and other persons known to have visited the house.

Dolan said he had no doubt that the French-door print matched Miss Krenwinkel's left little finger, and that the front door print matched Watson's.

Miss Krenwinkel's attorney, Paul Fitzgerald, asked Boen how long such a fingerprint could last on a door. Boen said it was difficult to tell, but possibly "up to several months."

Outside court, Fitzgerald said later, "I think people are jumping to a conclusion when they feel that fingerprints indicate Patricia Krenwinkel or Charles Watson were present when a homicide was committed ... They could have been there a year before."

Under questioning by Fitzgerald, Dolan said unidentified prints were found on the French door, front door, windows, screens, on cars outside the house and on a bottle of beer which also bore the print of victim Jay Sebring.

Dolan said 25 prints were found at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leno LaBianca, stabbed to death the day after the Tate killings, and none matched prints of any defendants.

BAD RUMOR MAN DOESN'T RING HER CHIMES ANY MORE

Dear Helen:

During the holidays our 16-year-old daughter met a boy on leave from the Army. They dated steadily for nine days, met each other's families, attended church together, and he asked her to keep his class ring.

He sent her a few gifts, and told her he was saving up to buy her a set of rings. We didn't approve of this, so they decided to wait until he got home and they knew each other better.

Then last month his mother called, very angry, to demand all his gifts and his class ring back. She even wanted the letters her son had sent our daughter.

The other day I found out why. It seems she had heard that our Cynthia was pregnant. I don't know how this rumor started but it is definitely untrue. Cynthia hasn't even dated since the boy left, nor has she been to a doctor.

I want to call this woman and tell her how unfair she is to believe without checking, but evidently it runs in the family, for Cynthia has now received a letter from Vietnam saying they were through.

Should I explode or keep quiet and be glad Cynthia does not seem crushed? —UPSET MOM

Dear Mom:

I'd "explode" in a coldly quiet way, and keep on being glad Cynthia has outgrown the boy. If you don't squash rumors, get them out in the open and stomp 'em or they may rise up to haunt you later on. —H.

Dear Helen:

My church is not my church any more. It voted to exclude a Negro family (the man is a sociologist, his wife a teacher) from membership. "Of course it's not bigotry," they were quick to explain. "Just that these folks would feel out of place."

One woman in particular belittles me for dropping out each time we meet. She thinks her stuffy Sunday-Christians are the only ones headed for Heaven.

Could you give me something good and cutting to say to her? —WANTING A COMEBACK

Dear Wanting:

"Cutting" isn't Christian, but if you must, how about: "Your church reminds me of divinity fudge: All whites and full of nuts." —H.

Dear Helen:

Whatever makes "Really Burning" think her generation has some corner on anti-litter consciences? Boy, I wish she could see the yards and streets around our schools, strewn with garbage, cans, and broken bottles—it makes Vietnam look like Ball Hal.

I just picked up debris thrown out by a kid in a car, and I take big fat issue with her finky brand of buck-passing. There is something so phony—and sad—about all that "generation" rap. Big problems get cliched to death before they have a chance to be solved. If any generation must be indicted for the pollution problem, the young will be hanging right in there too. Face it, the mess-mongers on this old globe come in all sizes, ages, and colors. Try attacking problems instead of insulting people, R. B., and you'll be staggered at how many sizes, etc. are swinging in there with you. —A BIT SCORCHED MYSELF

Nixon, Nation Mourn Death of Lombardi

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A nation of football fans, led by No. 1 fan President Nixon, mourned today the death of Vince Lombardi, the Washington Redskins coach considered by many the best the game had to offer.

The body of the 57-year-old Lombardi, who died Thursday, was to lie in a funeral home in the nation's capital for one day before being sent to New York, the city in which he was born.

Mass will be said in St. Patrick's Cathedral Monday by Terence Cardinal Cooke, archbishop of New York. Burial will be at Mount Olivet, a cemetery in Middletown Township, near Red Bank, N.J.

President Nixon said Lombardi was tops in his field "because he was able to help others discover the best that was in themselves. Like the power sweep which the game has trademarked, the power of Vince Lombardi's personality swept the world of sports and made a lasting impact on the life of all it touched.

"The lesson all Americans can learn from Coach Lombardi's life," Nixon said in a statement issued in Coronado, Calif., "is that a man can become a star when he becomes an apostle of teamwork."

In Tampa, Fla., where the Redskins are preparing for an exhibition game Saturday night, a mass will be said by the Rev. William Scweder at the motel where the team is lodged.

The Washington coach and executive vice president of the Redskins died Thursday morning in Georgetown University Hospital after a two-month fight with cancer.

He entered the hospital June 25 and underwent an operation two days later in which doctors removed a tumor and a two-foot length of colon. He was readmitted for another operation a month later.

It was not until Wednesday, however, that the family said publicly Lombardi suffered from "an extraordinarily virulent form of cancer."

Lombardi became such a legendary, larger-than-life figure on the American scene during the pro football boom of the 1960s that it's often forgotten he didn't achieve success until late in life.

He was an obscure assistant coach at age 45 and well-known only in football circles when the Green Bay Packers signed him Jan. 28, 1959, to a five-year contract as head coach and general manager.

In the next decade, he reached such heights he was compared with such pro football coaching giants as George Halas and Paul Brown.

He took the Packers from a 1-10-1 record into contention his first season and from 1960 on, the Packers never finished below second—capturing six Western Division and five world championships, including an unprecedented three in a row from 1965-1967, and the first two AFL-NFL World Championships in 1966-1967.

His over-all record with Green Bay was 141-39-4.

After a one-year retirement, he came to Washington last year and produced a 7-5-2 record during his first season, the first winning mark for the Redskins since 1955.

Russia Near Victory in Davis Cup

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — What do you think of the Davis Cup on display beside Lenin's tomb outside the red brick walls of the Kremlin in Moscow?

"Don't laugh at it, it's possible," Dennis Ralston, coach of the U.S. Davis Cup team said after he and Arthur Ashe Jr. had survived a two-day, five-set marathon Thursday with the Soviet's Alex Metreveli and Vladimir Korotkov.

The Yanks finally won 7-6, 6-7, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5, but the Russians came within an eyelash of beating one of America's finest teams.

It was one of the obscure little dramas of the 1970 U.S. Open Tennis Championships, enacted not without notice.

Fans, hearing of the resumption of a match halted after the third set Wednesday because of darkness, poured out of the stands, then pushed and shoved for a sight of the U.S.-Soviet duel on field court No. 7.

A smash by Korotkov that would have tied the fifth set 6-6 and sent it into sudden death was called out by the umpire when it was obviously three inches inside the line. Ashe, with a display of good sportsmanship, insisted the ball was good.

The point was played again. The Americans won it and then finally, after a half-dozen deuces, pulled out the match.

"We were praying we wouldn't go into sudden death," said Ralston. "They would have served last and would have had an 80-20 chance of winning."

"I think they would have won if we'd gone into a tie break," said Ashe.

Both Americans praised the Russians.

Metreveli, 25, dark and good-looking, a journalism student at Georgia University, and Korotkov, 22, stocky, a physical education student in Moscow, both are still in the singles division.

Metreveli, six times Soviet champion, plays Pat Cornejo of Chile today and Korotkov faces Pancho Gonzales.

Rod Laver, John Newcombe and Tony Roche led the advance of Australian favorites into the third round Thursday while Ashe remained a threat with a 6-7, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4 victory over 18-year-old Roscoe Tanner of Lookout Mountain, Tenn.

The Russians, making their first U.S. tennis visit since 1962, are creating considerable attention.

"Tennis is becoming very popular in the Soviet Union," Metreveli said. "We have perhaps 12,000 courts. Most of them are hard surface courts. It is a game of the people, a good form of keeping fit."

The young Russian was appalled when asked if he and other top Russians might take a shot at Lamar Hunt's million dollar series of pro tournaments, announced Thursday.

"No," he replied tersely. "We are amateurs. We do not play for money. We hope the Davis Cup never goes open."

Boston 5-2 Over Detroit

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Niekro has a brother named Phil in the National League and a cousin named Reggie Smith in the American. At least Reggie Smith has a cousin named Joe Niekro.

"I don't know why I hit him so hard—maybe it's because he's new in the league this year and I bear down harder," Smith said after rapping a single and homer off Niekro in Boston's 5-2 victory over Detroit Thursday night.

That gave Smith nine hits in 13 at-bats against Niekro this season, including three homers, and raised his league-leading batting average to .322, two points ahead of California's Alex Johnson.

Smith's 22nd home started Niekro's troubles in the opening inning and the Red Sox kayoed the Tiger right-hander in the third when Smith singled, Carl Yastrzemski doubled and Rico Petrocelli homered.

Elsewhere in the AL, Milwaukee toppled Minnesota 8-3, California edged Kansas City 1-0, Oakland overcame the Chicago White Sox 4-3 on a three-run pinch homer by Frank Fernandez in the ninth inning, Baltimore clipped the New York Yankees 8-4 and Cleveland beat Washington 4-2.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs trounced Philadelphia 7-2, St. Louis turned back the New York Mets 5-3, Cincinnati downed San Francisco 7-3, Atlanta walloped Los Angeles 11-4 and San Diego blanked Houston 4-0. Pittsburgh and Montreal were rained out.

Phil Roof's three-run homer highlighted a five-run explosion in the fifth inning as the Brewers beat the Twins and sliced their West Division lead to three games over the Angels and six over the A's. Minnesota's Brant Alyea and Milwaukee's Roberto Pena matched two-run homers in the seventh.

Rookie Tom Bradley posted his first major league shutout and complete game in California's squeaker over Kansas City with a seven-hitter. Hard-luck loser Jim Rooker held the Angels to four hits, but they scored in the second on two singles and an infield out.

Trailing the White Sox 3-1, the A's had a runner on first but were down to their last out against reliever Wilbur Wood. Then pinch hitter Dave Duncan singled and Fernandez, another pinch batter, smacked his 15th home run of the season over the left field fence. Bob Spence connected for the Sox.

The Orioles took advantage of two bunt singles, two bases-loaded walks and two errors to score six times in the sixth inning and beat the Yankees and Mel Stottlemyre. Jim Palmer withstood 10 New York hits, including Jim Lyttle's homer, for his 19th victory.

Solo homers by Duke Sims, Jackie Heidemann and Graig Nettles powered the Indians over the Senators.

Cubs Close in on Top NL Spot

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Hickman has been dubbed the Iceman by his teammates and the Chicago right-fielder again showed why with his sizzling hitting as the Cubs close in on the National League East's top spot.

Hickman didn't waste any time going to work Thursday. The 33-year-old veteran of nine major league seasons, stroked a run-scoring single in the opening inning, then crashed a three-run homer in the second as the Cubs routed Philadelphia 7-2 and moved to within one-half game of the division-leading Pittsburgh Pirates.

The 6-foot-4, 205-pounder from Tennessee increased his average to .326 with his 29th homer and single and the four runs batted in gave him 103 for the year. In his eight previous big league seasons, Hickman hit .236.

"Jim carried us last August and, when everyone else was fading in September, he kept right on going," Cubs' Manager Leo Durocher said. "And now he's carrying us again."

Although the former New York Met hit only .236 last year, when inserted regularly into the lineup during the last two months of 1969 when the Cubs fell out of first place as the Mets won the East, Hickman batted at a .301 pace.

He also slugged 14 of his 21 homers and drove in 31 of his 54 runs in that span and has continued his steady pace throughout 1970.

"Just knowing I'm playing every day has helped," Hickman said. "Durocher has shown confidence in me and I really enjoy playing in Chicago."

Hickman's offensive effort proved more than enough for Ferguson Jenkins Thursday, who won his 18th game while striking out 10.

The game also marked the end of Billy Williams's National League consecutive game record at 1,117. Williams, the Cubs' left fielder, had been in every Chicago game since Sept. 21, 1967.

In other NL action, St. Louis downed the Mets 5-3, the Pirates were rained out in Montreal, Cincinnati trimmed San Francisco 7-3, Atlanta routed Los Angeles 11-4 and San Diego blanked Houston 4-0.

In the American League, Baltimore trounced New York 8-4, Cleveland topped Washington 4-2, Milwaukee ripped Minnesota 8-3, Boston topped Detroit 5-2, Oakland edged Chicago 4-3 and California beat Kansas City 1-0.

The Mets fell from second to third in the East, one game behind the Pirates, as Joe Hague ripped a homer as St. Louis jumped to an early 3-0 lead.

The Cards made it 5-1 in the sixth off loser Gary Gentry, 9-8. Steve Carlton, 8-18, picked up the victory, giving up nine hits, including a two-run homer by Al Weis in the ninth.

Pete Rose drilled his 13th homer and drove in three runs while Johnny Bench ripped three hits and knocked in a pair of runs in Cincinnati's victory over the Giants.

Henry Aaron, Orlando Cepda and Clete Boyer socked homers for the Braves over Los Angeles while Andy Kosco and Bill Sudakis had homers for the Dodgers.

Aaron's three-run shot was his 36th and No. 590 of his career. Cepeda slugged his 32nd, a two-runner, as was Boyer's, and added a pair of singles.

Ark. Loses 2 Games to Shreveport

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers lost a Texas League doubleheader to Shreveport Thursday night 4-3 and 4-2 and dropped three games behind the Memphis Blues in the Eastern Division race.

The Travs have four games remaining in the season, all with the Blues.

Shreveport General Manager Bob Burton announced during the second game of Thursday night's doubleheader that the parent Atlanta Braves would not back a league franchise here next season.

Pitcher Wenty Ford, playing second base, won the opener with a one-out bunt single that scored Marlin Murphy from third base with the deciding run. Dick Grant pitched a three-hitter through six innings of the nightcap as the Braves pounded out three doubles and a triple off loser Dennis Daball.

Hope Opens Season Here Tonight

By Bill Moore
Star Sportswriter

The place is Hammons Stadium, the time is 8:00 p.m. and the reason is for the season opener between Ashdown and Hope.

Both teams are on the field, preparing for the game. When the whistle blows it will begin four quarters of brutal battle on the gridiron between the opposing teams and at the final buzzer, one team will be the winner, unless a tie exist.

After being 7-A champions last year, Ashdown has been moved into class AA ball, much rougher than Class A. Some people may wonder if it will have an effect on the Panthers. Tonight we will possibly see.

On the other hand, Hope has been in Class-AA and as the 4AA champions, the Bobcats will be out to retain that title, being the main point of attack by other teams trying to take that title away.

The Panthers have many rugged returning men from last years 11-2 team, but the Bobcats have just as many who can play just as well and hit just as hard.

Both teams have experience, determination, and plenty of pride and the spirit is high.

Ashdown has beaten Hope for the last few years, and it appears time for a change. The Bobcats have been looking forward to a chance to beat the Panthers and its finally here.

The real test for each team comes tonight, on the gridiron, for four quarters. And when the final buzzer of that first game of the 1970 season rings over the stadium, I predict that the Hope Bobcats will have their first taste of victory for this year.

Bradshaw Returns to Shreveport

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Terry Bradshaw, the passing whizz who has made the Pittsburgh Steelers winners in two of their three exhibition games, returns home tonight hopeful of making the Boston Patriots his third victim.

A capacity crowd of 30,000 is expected to watch the hometown boy who became pro football's No. 1 draft pick perform as a professional for the first time.

The Steelers — particularly Bradshaw—were impressive in a 21-6 victory over the New York Giants last week. Bradshaw completed 15 of 23 passes for 244 yards, including a 37 - yard touchdown toss.

His quick release and scrambling ability had the sports world buzzing after the nationally televised contest.

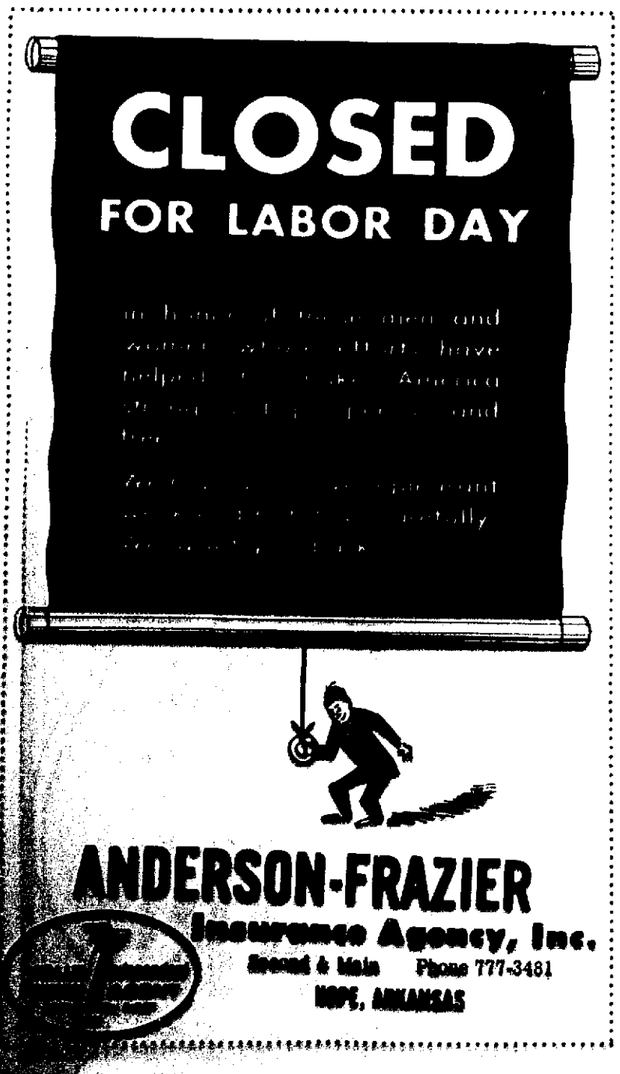

Preston Pearson, with 190 yards in 40 carries during the preseason, gives the Steelers an effective runner to compliment Bradshaw's passing.

The defense—traditionally one of the toughest in the National Football League—is led by tackle "Mean" Joe Green.

The Patriots will be looking for their first preseason victory after two defeats. The Patriots and Steelers have never played each other before.

Boston was bouyed this week when star fullback Jim Nance came to terms with the team. However, he is not expected to be ready until the regular season opener.

In his place will be Eddie Ray, a 242-pound fullback, who achieved collegiate stardom at Louisiana State.

Candidate Dale Bumpers Pays Hope a Visit

Several hundred persons greeted Gubernatorial Candidate Dale Bumpers when he paid a short visit to Hope yesterday at Town & Country and his downtown headquarters.

Aggies Show Pro Style Kicking

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Texas Aggies unwrapped some professional style kicking Thursday in a controlled scrimmage.

Punter Jimmy Sheffield boomed an 86-yarder with the wind and soccer style place-kicker Pat McDarmott booted seven consecutive extra points and a 23-yard field goal.

The Maroons defeated the Whites 52-0 in the scrimmage and Coach Gene Stallings said "We started slowly but the longer we played the better we got."

The Maroons, representing the first offensive and defensive units, completely dominated play with quarterback Lex James and halfback Brad Dusek each scoring two touchdowns.

At Texas, defensive coach Mike Campbell said of Wednesday's scrimmage "We didn't look as sound and as solid as you've got to be to be a good football team."

He added "There was some good individual play, but in playing defense you've got to play as a unit. If seven men play well and one doesn't on defense, the offense will find weakness. And until you support each other, you are not a good football team. I think we will get there, but we are not there yet."

Doctors said Thursday that defensive end Bill Atessis should return to practice Monday. He has been sidelined with a pulled hamstring muscle.

Texas Christian scrimmage the freshmen an hour and coach Fred Taylor said "We are not polished at all. We need a lot more work. And they are going to get it."

Sophomore Raymond Rhodes scored on touchdown runs of 30, 22, and 10 yards. He also caught a 14-yard scoring pass from quarterback Steve Judy.

The temperature reached 125 degrees on the astroturf at Jones Stadium during Texas Tech's workout Thursday at the same time the Weather Bureau reported a 98-degree reading. The Red Raiders ignored the heat.

Quarterback Chuck Hixson of Southern Methodist hit 1 of 17 passes for 172 yards and three touchdowns as the Mustangs worked out under lights in the Cotton Bowl.

"The ball seemed to have more zip tonight," Hixson said.

The first and second-team SMU players outscored the third and fourth stringers 42-10 in the scrimmage. Tight end Ken Fleming caught five passes for 81 yards and two touchdowns.

"This surface (Autroturf) actually feels more like the natural ground than the other artificial surface I have been on.

Symmetry Theory A Bit Unbalanced

The law of symmetry is one of the greatest frauds perpetrated on the bridge playing public. The idea of this pseudo law is that if you have a singleton or singletons then everyone else will have singletons.

The reason why some people believe this is that when you have a singleton, you have a long suit; when you have a long suit someone else has a short suit.

South was looking at two singletons, one in his hand and one in dummy. He was also looking at nine spades.

All else being equal the correct play with nine of a suit is to play out the ace and king. Once both opponents follow small to the first lead the odds are that the queen will drop on the next lead.

This applies no matter how many singletons declarer is looking at. The opponents' spades don't know how declarer's suits are divided. They just split in accordance with the law of averages which is a valid law and never has been repealed.

With this hand there is a further and really cogent reason to play out the ace and king of trumps. If the queen of trumps doesn't drop, South can try the club finesse. If it works he can discard both his hearts on the ace and king.

South knew all this but he had also fallen for the symmetry propaganda. He had one singleton. Dummy had one singleton. There had to be a singleton in spades.

South played his ace of spades. Ruffed a diamond to get to dummy and tried the trump finesse.

West took his queen gratefully and led a heart to his partner's ace.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
3 ♠	Dble	Pass	4 ♠
Pass	5 ♣	Pass	6 ♣
Pass	6 ♦	Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠ A 2 ♥ K 3 ♦ Q 9 8 4 ♣ Q 7 6 5 2
What do you do now?

A—Pass. There may be a grand slam here but no one ever went broke taking a profit. Six diamonds will romp.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding five spades over your four spades your partner has bid five hearts. What do you do in this case?

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The tea plant is an evergreen that grows to a height of 15 to 30 feet in its natural state. The World Almanac says that tea plants are pruned to heights of two to five feet, which results in the tea bush yielding a greater number of young leaves than in its natural state.

For the payment of the bonds, the District will pledge its full faith, credit and resources and all of its revenues from whatever source derived that may now or hereafter legally be pledged, except the millage annually voted for current operation and maintenance and the payment of indebtedness evidenced by other bond issues, but including surplus from continuing tax levies heretofore voted and pledged to secure any other bond issue, including, but not limited to, the twelve (12) mill tax pledged for the retirement of an issue of school bonds of the District dated March 1, 1962.

The purchaser may name the Trustee and Paying Agent. All expenses of the issue, including the printing and trusteeing of the bonds and the fee of Smith, Williams, Friday & Bowen, Bond Counsel, Little Rock, Arkansas, upon whose approving opinion the bonds will be issued will be paid by Hill, Crawford & Lanford, Inc., Little Rock, Arkansas, the District's fiscal agent.

Neither supplemental nor dual coupons will be permitted but the purchaser will have the privilege of converting the bonds to an issue bearing a lower rate or rates of interest with any conversion to be in accordance with the Universal Bond Values Tables and upon such terms that the District receive no less and pay no more than it would receive and pay if the bonds were not converted, with any conversion to be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the District and of the Commissioner of Education of the State of Arkansas. In addition, the following conversion conditions shall be applicable:

(1 The average maturities cannot be shortened by more than six months;

(2) The converted schedule shall contain not more than three rates of interest (not counting the same rate of interest that is repeated for different maturities); and

(3) The difference between the lowest rate of interest in the converted schedule and the rate bid must not be greater than 1%

The bonds will be subject to redemption prior to maturity in inverse numerical order at par and accrued interest on any interest paying date from funds from any source. In the event the District redeems any bonds of the March 1, 1962 issue it shall redeem that proportionate amount of the bonds of this issue then outstanding that the total principal amount of the bonds of the March 1, 1962 issue being redeemed bears to the total principal amount of the bonds of the March 1, 1962 issue outstanding immediately prior to such redemption; provided, however, that redemption of any part of the March 1,1962 issue by virtue of a refunding which leaves a continuing annual tax of not less than the same number of mills and of not less than the same duration pledged to the issue accomplishing the refunding, it shall not be necessary to redeem any bonds of this issue but thereafter references in this paragraph to the March 1, 1962 issue shall be construed to include the issue accomplishing the refunding in lieu of the refunded issue.

No bid of less than 103 cents on the dollar and accrued interest will be entertained. Only one rate of interest shall be bid, and the award, if made, will be to the bidder whose bid results in the lowest net interest cost to the District computed by determining the total interest cost from date to maturity.

The assessed valuation of all taxable property within the school district for the year 1969, the last assessment of record, is $1,968,990.

The bonds will be sold upon auction bids at 2:00 o'clock p.m. local time on the 29th day of September, 1970, in the office of the Superintendent of Schools in Saratoga, Arkansas. Each bidder will be required to file a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $1,600 on a bank that is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, payable to the District, to be kept as liquidated damages if the bidder is awarded the sale of the bonds and fails to complete the purchase. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned and the District will not pay interest on good faith checks. The District reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

For further information address the undersigned or Hill, Crawford & Lanford, Inc., Little Rock, Arkansas, the District's fiscal agent.

STRENGTHEN THROUGH FAMILY TIES

shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour; for we are labourers together with God." Those lines from Corinthians, might well be the inspiration for the holiday America observes... a special day set aside to pay respect to those who labor to make our nation great and, consequently, keep it free. This is Labor Day... when each man and woman whose work helps keep the bulwark of Democracy strong, receives "his own reward" in the satisfaction of a job well done.

It is not just another day for looking back on past accomplishment — this Labor Day. In a strange new scientific world which taxes comprehension, it is a time for looking ahead... for rededicating ourselves. We must need those Corinthian lines which asks us all to be "labourers together with God."

Calif. 500 2nd Richest in History

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Art Pollard, who starts in the back row of Sunday's California 500 field, says he may actually have an advantage over the other drivers in the $727,000 race.

"The front runners are going to have trouble getting through that first turn. I promise you, it's going to be wild. I'm glad I'm back in the rear where I can watch the fun for awhile."

Pollard, at 43 the dean of the regular USAC championship driving corps, was talking about the tricky first turn at the new $25.5-million Ontario Motor Speedway, where 33 drivers will compete in the second richest race in history.

The narrow turn has caused more concern among the drivers during two weeks of practice and qualifying than any other spot on the course. The reason is that the elevation in the turn drops from nine degrees on the track itself, to about four degrees on the apron.

Drivers traditionally try to "cheat" a bit, particularly in a similar corner at Indianapolis, and get below the white line that marks the line through the turn. At Ontario, the line marks the change in elevation, causing a driver to have to pull his car back up the incline when he gets below the line.

"To keep from being forced down into that apron," Pollard said, "a lot of guys are going to have to learn a new groove around the turns

"If they don't stay wide there will be big trouble. That's why we are going to emphasize staying high when we have our drivers' meeting Saturday. Everybody is going to have to use his head instead of his foot in that turn, or there will be disaster."

A.J. Foyt, three-time Indianapolis winner, also has been critical of the first turn.

"A driver is inviting a ticket to disaster if he trys to go low in that turn with someone running on the outside of him," the 35-year-old all-time USAC money winner said.

Meantime, speedway president Dave B. Lockton said Sunday's winner should collect a minimum of $160,000 from the purse made up of $500,000 in track guarantees, $175,500 in accessory awards and $51,500 in lap money.

He also said only a handful of reserved seat tickets remain unsold and forecast a gross gate for the race of $3 million.

Thirty-two of the 33 drivers took final carburetion or practice runs Thursday.

There was no activity at the track today. A driver's meeting is scheduled Saturday morning.

unaware of it.'

Faubus also said his house at Huntsville was overbuilt and costs increased "but the only thing I could do was go ahead and finish it." Republicans contended during the 1964 campaign that Faubus' home was worth more than $200,000.

The former governor said that in the settlement, the property turned over to the former Mrs. Faubus had to be debt-free, "So I went and searched for a place to borrow money" in order to cover the debts.

Faubus said the house was mortgaged to the Mercantile National Bank of Dallas for $40,000 and about $35,000 of that note still is outstanding. He said the $105,000 loan constituted a second mortgage on the house and a first mortgage on the acreage.

Faubus said his total indebtedness was about $140,000. He offered to sell the house which will pay off the indebtedness plus 10 per cent.

He said the acreage, including five acres on which the house is stiuated, was accumulated piece by piece over the years since he was 15.

Faubus said that in the settlement, he retained the mortgaged acreage and house and that his ex-wife obtained a motel, antique shop, the Faubus Building and other property.

The 60-year-old Faubus said he was not surprised that supporters and employes of Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., were working in behalf of the other Democratic gubernatorial runoff candidate, Dale Bumpers.

"The only surprise about it is that they should come in and be openly identified," Faubus said.

Jim McDougal and the Rev. Ben Grinage, paid Fulbright workers, have lent assistance to the campaign of the 45-year-old Bumpers, a Charleston lawyer.

"Some of you may recall that some months ago I said something about that many, many members of Sen. Fulbright's staff who were rather extreme liberals had not voted for me in even some past general elections," Faubus said.

Asked what he could do as governor now that he had not done in his 12 years in office, Faubus mentioned prison improvements, "rejuvenation" of a State Hospital division for assisting alcoholics, programs to curb drug law violations and assist the rehabilitation of drug users, and a program to allow welfare recipients drugs and medicines at no cost through federal aid.

He also proposed an amendment to the Act 9 amendment to permit the issuance of tax-free bonds to finance the construction of housing. The act now is used to permit industrial bond issues which, Faubus said, had meant $700 million to the state without taxes.

The former governor again plugged his plan to develop prison facilities to protect inmates from one another. Since he broached the suggestion, he said, there had been at least two stabbing incidents in the penitentiaries.

One inmate was stabbed nine times, Faubus said, and the other incident, last week, involved an inmate who was stabbed by two others.

One reporter asked: Do you take the blame for the condition the prisons were in when you left office?

Faubus said, "Well, no chief executive can avoid some of the blame. When you're in office when something bad happens, you may be doing all you can, you may be unaware, it may get away from you because with more than 150 agencies of government, so naturally one has to assume some responsibility for this, and my administration does. But it could happen to anyone. All that I point out, not to try to absolve my administration of any blame, but to point out that this could happen to anyone who is governor, and very often does all across the nation."

Hogs Workout at War Mem. Stadium

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks got acquainted with the improved facilities of War Memorial Stadium here Thursday night.

In a somewhat secret move, the Razorbacks flew from Fayetteville to Little Rock Thursday to scrimmage in the stadium, which now includes an AstroTurf playing surface and brighter-than-day lights.

The Razorbacks open their season on Sept. 12 at Little Rock against Stanford.

"We had heard so much about the stadium and the lights," coach Frank Broyles said. "We didn't want them (the players) coming down here and talking about the newness. We wanted to get all the newness out of the way."

Several persons showed up for the scrimmage and some were turned away at the gate. Broyles said he had not announced the scrimmage because he didn't want "somebody to get in an airplane and fly here."

U.S. WARNING

ment was insisting "that the United States press the Russians and Egyptians to uphold their obligations regarding the maintenance of the cease-fire and military standstill and the return of the status quo at the canal."

Reliable Israeli sources said the United States had offered to supply Israel antimissile electronic equipment and weapons if there was no demand for withdrawal of the missiles. The sources said the Israelis rejected this as "inadequate."

Despite the expressed U.S. desire to get the indirect Israeli-Egyptian-Jordanian peace talks at U.N. headquarters moving, Israeli sources said their government would not send its delegate, Ambassador Yosef Tekoah, back to New York until it got satisfaction from the United States.

In the first Egyptian comment on the U.S. statement of support for the Israeli charges, the semiofficial Cairo newspaper Al Ahram accused the United States of "insisting on accommodating the aggressive and expansionist designs of Israel."

The human skeleton is said to be made up of about 200 separate bones.

A Good Idea

Ladies and gentlemen, we bring you the First Amendment to the United States Constitution:

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

That is to answer once again those in this country who want to set themselves up as Big Brothers. We have had the First Amendment for nearly 200 years now. Look to it. - Atlanta (Ga.) Journal

Spoiling The Broth

A federal judge of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals made this sage observation in a school case handed down last month: "The racial ingredients of schools cannot be prescribed with such certainty of a correct optimum result as might be found in a gourmet cook book specifying the proper portions for a deluxe casserole."

Unfortunately, there are cooks within the Department of Health, Education and Welfare who think otherwise. - Columbia (S. C.) State

You Can't Always Rely On A Smile

A psychologist at the University of North Carolina has discovered, by means of a student experiment, that:

- Females smile more often than males.
- The most smile-producing situation is a male smiling at a female.
- You get more smiles if you smile.

We wouldn't call the findings exactly earth-shaking. Women smile more easily than men because they know that, if everything else fails, they can hook one to support them for the rest of their lives. When a male smiles at a female, he is a potential victim.

As for the production of smiles by smiling first we asked our banker, who is an occasional lender. We smiled broadly. He laughed in our face. - Asheville (N. C.) Citizen

Endorsement of Purcell Welcomed

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Dale Bumpers of Charleston, who will meet former Gov. Orval E. Faubus in Tuesday's runoff for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, said Thursday that Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell's endorsement would "brand a lot of things that have been said as being completely false."

Purcell, who finished third in the Aug. 25 primary, Thursday endorsed Bumpers in Tuesday's primary.

Bumpers said that when he learned of Purcell's endorsement he "went about five feet off the ground ... "

"We were hoping and praying that we could get that endorsement," Bumpers said. "Joe Purcell has been a long-time friend of mine and I have always considered him a very honest and honorable man. I thought he had a splendid record as attorney general and there are very few people in the state who could command the respect for integrity and decency that he does."

Bumpers said he and his staff were trying to "catalogue" all of the rumors and accusations that have been made and had tallied up "37 to 40."

"We're just doing this to see how many things can come out of the other camp about us," Bumpers said. "In the end, there will be 100 to 150 different rumors on me, but all of that is not going to change the outcome one bit. This is the kind of tactic my opponent is using that keeps good men out of politics."

Jim Whitten Loses Fight for His Life

Jimmy Whitten, 21, formerly of Hope, lost his fight for life early Friday enroute to a hospital at Little Rock.

Young Whitten was victim of a rare blood disease that required transfusion after transfusion for a major part of his life. Even with this handicap he joined his brothers as a Hope Star carrier for several years.

He lived in Hope practically all his life prior to moving to Texarkana a few years ago where he resided with his family at 521 Pecan Street.

Last month residents of Hope raised over $2000 to help the Whitten family pay for costly hospital and medical bills.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N.R. Whitten; four brothers, Doyle Edward of St. Louis, Ernest of Sulpulpa, Okla., John Thomas of Fayetteville and William Whitten of the home; four sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Walthall of Garland, Texas, Mrs. Catherine Ann Chandler of Athens, Texas; Mrs. Betty Sue Hernades of Dallas and Mary Jane Whitten of the home and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Whitten of Hope.

Arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Oakcrest. Burial will be in Anderson Cemetery at Spring Hill.

Warrant Issued for Sprague

GREAT BEND, Kan. (AP) — Federal and state warrants have been issued against Leonard Francis Sprague, 40, in connection with the seizure of two Hoisington, Kan., boys at the Cheyenne Bottoms Wildlife Refuge Aug. 28.

Sprague was arrested in Shreveport, La., Wednesday.

He is one of four men who escaped from the Sherman, Tex., jail Aug. 12 where he was being held in connection with the slaying of Jimmy Scott, 9, at Paris, Tex., in June of 1969.

Sheriff Marion Weese of Great Bend said he signed a complaint charing Sprague with trying to murder Richard Farmer, 12, and with kidnaping Herman Gearhardt Jr., 8. Judge William Laughlin issued the warrant and set the man's bond at $25,000.

The FBI filed a federal kidnaping charge in the same case and recommended a bond of $50,000.

14 Persons Voted in Both Primaries

It has been reported to this office that fourteen persons in Hempstead County voted in both the Republican and Democratic Primaries on August 25th. This matter is now under investigation, said John Robert Graves, deputy prosecuting attorney.

"In order to avoid further violations of the election laws by Hempstead County voters, I want to take this means to advise the public that it is a direct violation of the law for any person who voted in the Republican Primary on August 25th to vote in the Democratic run-off election on September 8th. Maximum penalty for such a violation is five years in the State Penitentiary and a $5,000.00 fine.

"Donal Parker, Hempstead County Democratic Chairman, advises me that a list of all persons who voted in the Republican Primary will be kept at each Democratic voting precinct on September 8th and any illegal voting will be brought to my attention.

"I am confident that the citizens of this county will respect our elections laws and remember that our constitutional right to vote is a privilege which is not to be abused," Mr. Graves said.

Some Damage Caused by Thunderstorms

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms rumbled across Arkansas Thursday night, dumping rain on the state and causing some minor damage.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said an unconfirmed tornado was reported northeast of Fort Smith shortly after midnight. Pea-sized hail fell at Harrison, accompanied by winds ranging up to 30 miles an hour.

Early today a trailer was blown over north of Russellville on Arkansas 7, and a roof was blown off a house south of Conway.

In the Russellville area several homes and mobile trailers were reported damaged and residents were treated for minor injuries.

A resident reported seeing a funnel cloud pass over Russellville early this morning.

Thundershowers were expected to move out of the state this afternoon, but the weather bureau predicts more thundershower activity Saturday.

Highs Saturday will be mostly in the 90s. Lows tonight will be in the 60s and low 70s.

Highs Thursday ranged from 95 at Fort Smith to 86 at Harrison.

Overnight lows included 63 at Fayetteville and Harrison, 66 at Jonesboro, 69 at Pine Bluff, 77 at Texarkana, 76 at El Dorado, 69 at Memphis, 68 at Little Rock and 68 at Fort Smith.

4 Newspapers Ask Support for Bumpers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Four newspapers — The McGehee Times, The Helena-West Helena Word, The Eagle Democrat at Warren, and The Times at North Little Rock—have urged their readers to vote for Dale Bumpers in Tuesday's runoff primary.

The weekly McGehee Times, in its Wednesday edition, called Bumpers a "dynamic, enterget-ic young lawyer ... who has literally exploded on the Democratic scene."

He comes across in person and on television like a polished professional and leaves you feeling he is absolutely right about everything he says," the paper said in its editorial.

Faubus Explains Loan of $105,000 as Part of Divorce Settlement

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A $105,000 loan former Gov. Orval E. Faubus received in 1969 was part of the settlement he made in the divorce from his former wife, Alta.

Faubus made the statement Thursday while taping an interview with newsmen on KATV, Little Rock.

Earlier in the week, news articles had reported that the loan from the Hot Springs Corp. was on file in the office of the clerk of Madison County.

Faubus said Thursday that many business items were handled for him while he was governor and that he found unexpected debts when he left office.

"When I went home, I found $20,500 in personal notes at the bank and my name wasn't on any of them," he said. "I was

U.S. Warning Not Enough, Israel Says

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israel said Thursday night that Washington's call for the Egyptians and Russians to stop violating the Middle East cease-fire is not enough. Premier Golda Meir insisted that the Egyptians pull back the antiaircraft missiles installed in the Suez Canal truce zone since Aug. 7.

Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan said he approved of a cabinet plan to give the United States time to get the missiles removed through diplomatic means. But he warned that Israel is capable of "taking military steps, if needed."

"We want the violations stopped," declared U.S. State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey. "In the meantime we believe it is of the utmost importance that the talks between the parties ... proceed forthwith."

It was understood that U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam in Moscow and Donald C. Bergus, the top U.S. diplomat in Cairo, were asking for a stop to the missile buildup rather than a rollback. Washington reportedly did not want to make its demands so strong that they would prompt the Russians and the Egyptians to abandon the quest for peace.

Mrs. Meir in a speech to her Labor party said her govern-

Enemy Builds for Major New Drive

By JOHN T. WHEELER
Associated Press Writer

PHNOM PENH (AP) — Up to 10 Communist divisions are now in Cambodia or moving down the Ho Chi Minh trail through Laos with orders from Hanoi to launch a major new offensive in South Vietnam, senior Communist diplomatic sources report.

American military sources in Saigon said they could not confirm or deny the report.

The sources said American warplanes have flown about 2,000 sorties against North Vietnamese positions in Laos and Cambodia during the past week to blunt any enemy plans for a massive offensive across the border into South Vietnam. But they said this was not unusual, that American planes have been waging such a bombing campaign for several months.

A sortie is one flight by one plane.

An American source in Phnom Penh said any enemy force of the size reported by the Communist sources would never be permitted to mass on the Cambodian border as such forces have done for previous offensives. He implied that American ground forces might enter Cambodia as they did last May and June in the operation which the U.S. Command said cleared out many of the enemy base camps on the Cambodian side of the border.

Cambodian and Western military sources said there is clear evidence that the North Vietnamese are rebuilding their border bases in the remote jungles of eastern Cambodia, bordering South Vietnam. Some of these bases are said to be in the same position as those cleared by U.S. and South Vietnamese troops during their May-June action.

One Communist source with indirect lines to Hanoi said the gathering force included North Vietnam's 1st, 2nd, 5th, 7th, 9th, 20th and 25th divisions. Cambodian intelligence already has reported the 1st, 5th, 7th, 9th and 20th divisions in the country.

Some sources believe the attack on South Vietnam will begin in about two months.

Communist sources say the plan for a major offensive in South Vietnam reflects a decision in Hanoi to make the main target South Vietnam again and not the destruction of Cambodian Premier Lon Nol's regime.

Possible aims were said to be the disruption of the Saigon government's increasingly strong military machine, reversal of the Vietnamization program and the inflicting of serious new casualties on American troops to quicken the antiwar sentiment in the United States.

In the ground war, a communique from the U.S. Command said "light and scattered ground contacts continued to characterize activity involving U.S. forces in Vietnam."

Cambodia Is Fast Losing Ground

By JOHN T. WHEELER
Associated Press Writer

PHNOM PENH (AP) — In the two months since U.S. troops pulled out of Cambodia, Gen. Lon Nol's government has steadily lost ground in its war against the Communists.

Washington has granted Phnom Penh $49 million in military aid and has committed limited U.S. air power to back up government troops in the field. But this has not halted, much less reversed, the deteriorating military and political situation.

The overriding impression is that the government's strategy of abandoning more than half the country to Communist control to insure the defense of the capital and the nation's heartland is not working well. The plan called for abandoning the entire northeast, most of the extreme north, and some areas that were once held by South Vietnamese and American troops.
